Intellicheck Mobilisa to Report Fourth Quarter and 2008 Year End Financial Results

Port Townsend, WA – February 13, 2009: Intelli-Check - Mobilisa, Inc. (NYSE Alternext US: IDN) a leading technology company specializing in wireless and identity systems, will report financial results for the Fourth Quarter and Year ended December 31, 2008 before the market opens on March 17, 2009. Following the announcement will be a shareholder's conference call at 1:00 PM Eastern/10:00 AM Pacific to discuss operating results.

Subject to completion of the Company's year-end audit process, preliminary expectations are that revenue for the full year ended December 31, 2008 will be approximately $10 million with positive cash flows from operations for the year. Cash and investments as of December 31, 2008 grew to approximately $3.4 million and the Company has no long-term debt. The year-end revenue and positive total cash flow from operating activities results would be a record for the Company.

"2008 was a tremendous year for Intellicheck Mobilisa," stated Dr. Nelson Ludlow the Company's CEO. "We are building new products, adding staff to the sales team, and winning new customers. The resulting Company is stronger, leaner, and has generated positive cash flow from operating activities much quicker than we initially anticipated. We look forward to sharing our results on the conference call."

To listen to the conference call, please dial (877) 407-8037. For callers outside the U.S., please dial (201) 689-8037. For those unable to participate in the live conference, a recording will be available for 48 hours after the call.
